Out of the Box, 6th Annual Invitational Art Exhibition

Thursday, October 2, 2008, 6:00-8:00pm -Friday, December 19, 2008

This annual event showcases the work of regional artists. Each invites the viewer to step "out of the box" as these women artists explore a range of materials, processes, ideas, and their own personal vision of the world.

Primary Colors

Thursday, January 15, 2009, 6:00-8:00pm - Friday, March 13, 2009

Red, Yellow, and Blue are primary colors. These are the charter members of the color wheel – the palette from which all other colors can be mixed. Color combinations affect the mood, time of day, and emotional impact of a work of art. See how these women artists use color to share their vision with the viewer and fill your winter with color.

Surviving to Thriving

Thursday, April 2, 2009, 6:00-8:00pm - Friday, June 19, 2009

"Everybody hurts in this life." These lyrics by the band REM (1992) resound in every culture around the world. Since the beginning of time, human beings have recorded their struggle – to survive and to thrive. No matter of income, language, race, or gender, art helps us to process, accept, and grow. Share the stories and the visual record of survival created by these selected women artists.

Anything Goes

Thursday, July 16, 2009, 6:00-8:00pm - Friday, September 18, 2009

What will an artist exhibit when an artist can exhibit (almost) anything? Come and see what these women artists present when there are no restrictions on media, content, or size. What artistic innovations will we see when anything goes?
