From The Studio of . . .7th Annual Invitational Art Exhibit

Opening Reception, Thursday, October 1, 2009, 6 P.M. until 8 P.M.

A studio can be an architecturally designed area, a classroom, or the dining room table. It is not the working space that counts when creating but the - studio of the mind. We have invited women artists to share the art work they have created in their personal working space.

Piece by Piece

Opening Reception, Thursday, January 21, 2010, 6 P.M. until 8 P.M.

With needle and thread, paper and scissors, fibers and glue to textures on canvas; bit by bit from the mind to the hand and through the spirit come images for this show. The products are wearable and fine art pieces in a variety of techniques. Let this exhibit open and expand your vision, one piece at a time.

New Beginnings

Opening Reception, Thursday, April 15, 2010, 6 P.M. until 8 P.M.

Challenges may arise early or late in life, but regardless of when they occur we find that healing and the ability to thrive come only through loving, caring support. In the process of struggling to survive each person finds her view of life, and this exhibit gives the artists an opportunity to share their stories as visual records of their personal journeys.

ARTrageous!

Opening Reception, Thursday, July 15, 2010, 6 P.M. until 8 P.M.

In this show the artists have a chance to tickle our funny bone, make a statement, be insane (or a bit inane), and act a little silly. We invite you to come see the results, or, as ABBA sang, "Take a chance on me." At ARTrageous! we guarantee you'll have fun.

DID YOU KNOW....

Unique and informative events are offered in conjunction with each of our four exhibits. These include presentations by professional artists and instruction relative to the theme of the exhibit. In our effort to reach out to the community, the venues of these events have included The Cummer Museum of Art and Gardens, the downtown Jacksonville Public Library, Bank of America, the Women's Center of Jacksonville and local artist's studios.
